At Mathakondapalli Model School, we believe that education must move beyond the pursuit of marks. Every child deserves the opportunity to create, innovate, collaborate, and leave behind a meaningful contribution. These books are not classroom assignments they are the outcome of curiosity, perseverance, creativity, and purposeful learning.

BOOK LAUNCH

The collection was professionally published by Quills Club, Delhi, giving our students the extraordinary opportunity to become published authors at a young age. More than just a publication, these books stand as a testament to the confidence, perseverance, and creativity that flourish within the MM School learning ecosystem.

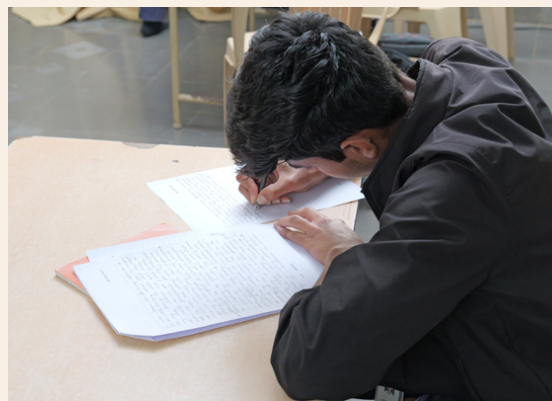

The books were officially received and launched by our chief guest Mr. M. Shanmugaraja, renowned Film Actor and Founder & Director of Nigazh Theatre Centre, in the presence of distinguished special felicitators Mr. Sezhian Venkatachalam, Software Professional, Entrepreneur, and Community Leader, and Dr. Hosur Manimekalai, acclaimed Writer and Doctor of Letters. Their presence and words of encouragement inspired our young creators to continue believing in the power of their ideas and voices.

This initiative perfectly reflects MM School's educational philosophy of project-based, experiential, and multidisciplinary learning, where students are not merely learners but creators, innovators, and contributors to society.

From brainstorming ideas and writing stories to illustrating, editing, and publishing, every step of the journey became a meaningful learning experience that developed communication, creativity, critical thinking, collaboration, and artistic expression.

For MM School, this is more than the launch of a book collection—it is the beginning of a culture where every child is encouraged to dream, create, and leave a lasting impact through their work. Seeing our students proudly hold books carrying their own names as authors and illustrators is a moment of immense pride for the entire MM School family.

As these books find their way into the hands of readers, they carry not only inspiring stories but also the dreams, imagination, and limitless potential of our young authors and artists.

This milestone will remain a cherished chapter in the history of MM School and a powerful reminder that every great author begins with the courage to write the very first story.
